

JITMM, Bangkok
8th December 2017

---

Royal Society of Tropical Medicine and Hygiene

- Who we are
- Why we're here
- How you can get involved

---

Who we are

- Formed in 1907, royal assent, pioneer
- Charity, members in Tropical Medicine, Global Health
- 1k members, 43 countries, 20k network
- 19 region- 8 Thailand, 8 Malaysia, 2 Vietnam, 1 Philippines
- 2 journals, grants, travel scholarships, meetings, events
- Fund, publish, showcase, share research, knowledge

A new direction

- New vision and mission, scope
- Relationships, alignment, impact
- Priority themes – inc drug resistance, malaria
- Key audiences—early career, international members
- Activities – improve existing activities – events, journals, scope mentoring, career, training
- Policy, advocacy – identify, push for improvement

How to get involved

- Sign up for the newsletter, become a member
- Apply for a small grant, or encourage your peers
- Attend our meetings, with a travel grant
- Submit to our journals, or start reviewing papers
- Mentor early career, or find a mentor
- Add knowledge, experience to a network
- Represent RSTMH in your region or country

Strategy launch 2017

---

Thank you

Tamar.ghosh@rstmh.org