

THE SOUTHEAST ASIAN JOURNAL OF TROPICAL MEDICINE AND PUBLIC HEALTH

Volume 40 Supplement 1 2009

| CONTENTS | Page |
|---|------|
| Foreword | i |
| Emergency management in the Western Pacific Region: current status and challenges A Pesigan, Lester Sam Geroy | 1 |
| Health emergency and disaster preparedness in Malaysia H Singh, S Subramaniam | 11 |
| Disaster and emergency preparedness of hospitals in Mongolia C Bayarmaa, L Ganbold, J Sakamoto, N Hamajima | 16 |
| Rapid health assessment in emergencies: Vietnam experience Nhu V Ha, Hieu Q Vu, TV Le | 23 |
| Disaster and emergency preparedness in Tonga P Jayavanth, M Takai, Siale Akau'ola | 31 |
| Use of community development process in developing post-disaster assessment tools NR Juban, HY Lam, M Go | 41 |
| Mass casualty management (MCM) system assessment in the Western Pacific Region TJ Herbosa, HY Lam, Paul Andrew G Zambrano | 47 |
| Training in health emergency management in Asia Pacific: the inter-regional PHEMAP E Lake | 57 |
| Situation of participants of five PHEMAP courses: A cross-sectional telephone survey V Quang Hieu, N Thi Minh Ly | 66 |
| The Asia Pacific Emergency and Disaster Nursing Network: promoting the safety and resilience of communities K Fritsch, Y Zang | 71 |
| Psychosocial issues in emergencies: implications for nursing M Grigg | 79 |
| Development of the rapid assessment tool for mental health and psychosocial support in the Philippine health emergency setting WV Laurel | 88 |
| Development of a traditional medicine disaster kit J Alfonso Leonardia, P Andrew G Zambrano | 96 |
| Strengthening mass casualty management systems through training M Dubouloz | 106 |